Re: United States v. Sandy Hernandez
Docket No. 03-cr-1198-(JG)

s/John Gleeson

WST

4-17-06

Dear Judge Gleeson:

The Court has granted prior applications to adjourn sentence in this matter, and it is presently scheduled for April 21 at 2:00 P.M. I reluctantly must ask for another adjournment, owing to the fact that I spent nearly three full days this week doing detention hearings on two new matters. Between that and the holidays, (and I must devote time to Passover as well as Easter as my wife is Episcopalian), I just will not have enough time between now and April 21 to properly complete my sentencing submission.

I have discussed this matter with A.U.S.A. Douglas Leff, and he has again graciously consented. The dates we propose, subject to the Court's approval and convenience, are May 3, 4, 10 or 11.

The Honorable John Gleeson
United States District Judge

I apologize if I have (again) inconvenienced the Court. Thank you for considering this application, which, if granted, will certainly be the last.

Very truly yours,

Joel S. Cohen (JC-6998)
